

Notification of Change in Special Selection of Working Individuals Examination
 Procedure (Graduate Admission 2018) for the Master's Program in Policy and Planning
 Science, Graduate School of Systems and Information Engineering

The University will change the admission procedure for the Master's Program in Policy and Planning Science (Special Selection of Working Individuals) as follows. The change will apply from the 2018 admission, of which the first examination will be held in August, 2017.

(Change from)

Major	Subject	English (100 points)	Specialized Subject (100 points)	Essay (100 points)	Oral Examination (200 points)
	Time	-	10:00-11:30	13:00-14:30	10:00-17:00
Policy and Planning Sciences		English Evaluate TOEIC Official Score Certificate or TOEFL Examinee (Test Taker) Score Report which is sent to the TOEFL examinee from ETS by postal mail.	Choose one from Mathematics (calculus, linear algebra), Finance and Urban/Regional planning at the time of exam.	You will read charts, data and English texts and describe your observations about them.	Individual Interview Presentation (5min): To assess motivation, research plans, status of preparation, and future vision. Questionnaire (10min): Questions will be asked from the interviewer.

(Note) Applicants need to contact the faculty members in their area of specialization prior to the application process. If you have the second choice, contact them as well.

(Change to)

Subject (Allocation of Marks)	Oral Examination (100 points)
Major	Time	10:00-17:00
Policy and Planning Sciences	Individual Interview Presentation (5min): To assess motivation, research plans, status of preparation, and future vision. Questionnaire (15min): The interviewer will ask questions to check your ability to analyze data, such as graphs, maps, or tables, and your general ability to think logically. Questions may refer the content of your presentation, or to related issues in general.

(Note) Applicants must to contact the desired faculty advisor(s) in their area of specialization prior to submitting the application for the examination. Applicants for the special examination for working individuals should confirm their intention at this time. If you have the second choice, contact them as well.