(Notice) Additional Notes on the Examination Subjects for Degree Programs in Comprehensive Human Sciences, Master's Program in Public Health for Admission 2024

We are informing you that we have added the notes on the examination subjects for Admission 2024 as below. (Additional information is indicated in red)

Subject		Foreign Language (100 points)	Advanced Subjects (100 points)	Oral Examination (200 points)
Program	Time		11:00-12:00	13:00-18:00
Public Health (General Selection Process)		English We will evaluate applicants' English ability with official score of TOEIC, TOEFL, or IELTS (Note) Refer to 1	Advanced Subjects Advanced subjects relating to public health science and other fields (Note) Refer to 2	Individual Interview General knowledge relating to public health and motivation for applying
Public Health (Special Selection Process for Working Individuals)			Advanced Subjects Advanced subjects relating to public health science and other fields (Note) Refer to 3

(Note 1): Notes on Examination Subjects

1. Certificate of "TOEFL iBT Home Edition" is also valid.
2. Choose one subject from the following at the time of the Web Entry: Public Health basics, Statistics (You are not allowed to change the subject after you complete the Web Entry procedure.)
   Examinees who have chosen Statistics are allowed to use calculators during the written examination. However, the calculators used must be those provided by the university, and you may not bring your own calculator.
3. Choose one subject from the following at the time of the Web Entry: Public health application, Statistics (You are not allowed to change the subject after you complete the Web Entry procedure.)
   Examinees who have chosen Statistics are allowed to use calculators during the written examination. However, the calculators used must be those provided by the university, and you may not bring your own calculator.

(Note 2): Notes on the language used for the examination

1. Choose Japanese or English as the language used for the examination at the time of the Web Entry.
   (You are not allowed to change the language after you complete the Web Entry procedure or on the day of the examination.)