Notification of Change in Entrance Examination Procedure

from Academic Year 2019 (Enrollment for April 2020)

for Ph.D. Program in Empowerment Informatics, School of Integrative and Global Majors

Ph.D. Program in Empowerment Informatics at the School of Integrative and Global Majors (SIGMA) will hold the admission on recommendation in July, as well as the general admission in August and February. The change will apply from the 2020 admission, of which the first examination will be held in July, 2019. The details are as follows.

【Change from】

１．Maximum Number of Places Available until the 2019 Admission

　　(Entrance Examination held in Academic Year 2018)

For entry to the 1st year of the program	For entry to the 3rd year of the program
12 students	A few or more students

２．Details

	For entry to the 1st year of the program	For entry to the 3rd year of the program
General Admission in October	Around 6 students	A few or more students
Special Admission in December	Around 6 students	A few or more students
General Admission and Special Admission in February	A few or more students	A few or more students

【Change to】

１．Number of Students to be Admitted from the 2020 Admission

　　(Entrance Examination held in Academic Year 2019)

For entry to the 1st year of the program	For entry to the 3rd year of the program
8 students	A few or more students

２．Details

	For entry to the 1st year of the program	For entry to the 3rd year of the program
Admission on Recommendation in July	Around 4 students	-
General Admission in August	Around 4 students	A few or more students
General Admission in February	A few or more students	A few or more students

Note:　Special Admissions in December and February will not be held as from the 2020 Admission (Entrance Examination held in Academic Year 2019).

This change will be officially announced on the Admission Guidelines which is planning to be released on May, 2019.