

Notification of Change in General Admission Examination Procedure (Graduate Admission 2020) for the Master's Program in Computer Science, Graduate School of Systems and Information Engineering

The University will change the admission procedure for the Master's Program in Computer Science (General Admission) as follows. The change will apply from the 2020 admission, of which the first examination will be held in August, 2019.

(Change from)

Subject (Allocation of Marks)		English (150 points)	Basic Subjects (300 points)	Oral Examination (300 points)
			Mathematics / Fundamentals of Computer Science
Major	Time	-	10:00-11:30	10:00-17:00
Computer Science		English Evaluate TOEIC Listening and Reading Test Official Score Certificate / Official Score Report or TOEFL Examinee (Test Taker) Score Report which is sent to the TOEFL examinee from ETS by postal mail.	(You will be asked questions on your basic understandings.)	Individual Interview (You will be asked questions on your specialization and your purpose of enrollment.)

(Change to)

Subject (Allocation of Marks)		English (100 points)	Oral Examination (400 points)
Major	Time	-	10:00-17:00
Computer Science		English Evaluate TOEIC Listening and Reading Test Official Score Certificate / Official Score Report or TOEFL Examinee (Test Taker) Score Report which is sent to the TOEFL examinee from ETS by postal mail.	Individual Interview 1. You will be asked about your basic knowledge about mathematics and Fundamentals of Computer Science. 2. You will be asked questions on your specialization and your purpose of enrollment.

Note: This change will be officially announced on the Application Guides which is planning to be released on April, 2019.