

[Notice: University of Tsukuba]

Change of Entrance Examination in October for Subprogram in International Education, Master's Programs in Education,
Degree Programs in Comprehensive Human Sciences,
Graduate School of Comprehensive Human Sciences, Academic Year 2021

We notify that the entrance examination in October, 'Special selection for English speakers and overseas Japanese nationals' of the Subprogram in International Education, Master's Programs in Education, Degree Programs in Comprehensive Human Sciences, Graduate School of Comprehensive Human Sciences, will be conducted online.

Due to this change, Section 9 of the application guidelines has been revised as follows. We will contact candidates individually concerning how to take the online examination.

9. Selection processes

9.2. Interview (200 points)

Candidates will be contacted to arrange an interview date for overseas residents. For residents of Japan, the interviews will be conducted on the interview date in Section 1.

During the interview, English proficiency, basic knowledge of the subject area, and interest in the field of international education will be evaluated. For the remainder of the interview, the candidate will field questions from members of the selection committee.

The interview will be conducted~~face to face for residents of Japan~~ or via video conferencing~~for overseas residents~~.