Change in Enrollment Periods for Entrance Examinations for the Graduate School of Science and Technology, Degree Programs in Systems and Information Engineering for the 2027 Academic Year

Starting with the 2027 academic year admissions (entrance examinations conducted in 2026), the following changes will be made to the General Selection Process and the Special Selection Process for Working Individuals.

Applicable Degree Programs:
Master's Program in Policy and Planning Sciences
Master's Program in Risk and Resilience Engineering
Master's Program in Computer Science
Master's Program in Intelligent and Mechanical Interaction Systems
Master's Program in Engineering Mechanics and Energy

[Before the Change]

July Selection Process (Special Selection Process for Recommended Applicants)
→Enrollment in April of the following year

August Selection Process (General Selection Process, Special Selection Process for Working Individuals)
→Enrollment in April of the following year

January to February Selection Process (General Selection Process, Special Selection Process for Working Individuals)
→Enrollment in April of the following year

[After the Change]

July Selection Process (Special Selection Process for Recommended Applicants)
→Enrollment in April of the following year

August Selection Process (General Selection Process, Special Selection Process for Working Individuals)
→Enrollment in April of the following year

January to February Selection Process (General Selection Process, Special Selection Process for Working Individuals)
→Enrollment in April of the following year or October of the following year

Please note that the above changes will be officially confirmed in the application guidelines scheduled to be published in April 2026. Be sure to check the official application guidelines for the 2027 academic year entrance examinations.